What is the OJI Benefit Program?

- It’s NOT Workers Compensation. It IS a benefit.
- As a benefit any lost time wages you receive if you are out of work are NOT tax exempt, therefore normal taxes and deductions will be deducted from the paycheck.

Who is eligible to participate?

- All AU employees as defined by the Auburn University Faculty Handbook and the Personnel and Policy Procedures for Administrative Professional and University Staff.
- This includes TES workers, student employees, part time and full time employees.
- Injury must occur in the scope and course of your employment duties as an employee of Auburn University.
What Immediate steps should be taken upon injury?

• Treatment should be sought from the Auburn University Medical Clinic if during regular business hours. If outside of normal business hours seek treatment from a primary care Blue Cross Blue Shield PPO Physician.

• If an emergency, seek medical attention from the nearest Emergency Room.

• The employee should notify his/her supervisor of the accident/incident as soon as possible and report the accident/incident within 72 hours in the incident entry portal at: https://cws.auburn.edu/rms/pm/claims
Important Information regarding OJI benefit claim's

- Employee’s or employee’s spouse’s health insurance is primary.

- All insurance, including Medicare if applicable, must be filed and paid or declined before Auburn's OJI program will pay.

Medical expenses, including prescription drugs, not covered by medical insurance should be submitted to the claims adjuster for consideration of payment.
Reporting an OJI lost wage benefit claim

• Time lost from work due to an on the job injury may be charged to accrued sick and/or annual leave or may be paid through the OJI Program at 66 2/3 % of employee's regular rate of pay at the time of the accident not to exceed the maximum weekly rate set annually by law.

• No OJI Lost Wage benefits for the first three (3) work days following the accident/incident. Sick or annual leave, or leave without pay for these three (3) days. The injured employee MUST notify the person responsible for preparing payroll in their division/department that they wish to apply for annual leave, sick leave or lost wage benefits.

Employee MUST notify his/her supervisor and the claims adjuster that he/she wishes to apply for lost wage benefits.

Employee must provide Risk Management and the claims adjuster with a physician’s statement certifying the employee is unable to work because of the work related injury.
Reporting Lost Time for an Injured Employee to Payroll and Risk Management

- The last week of a payroll time period an email containing a link will be sent to the employee's supervisor.

- The supervisor should open the link within 4 days and enter the employee's information and the time missed from work for that pay period and click the save button.

- The supervisor should also enter any time the employee missed from work during that pay period in Kronos as OJI time.

- The hours for both AU Payroll and Risk Management MUST be the same.
What if a claim is denied completely or in part?

- The employee may file a claim with the Alabama State Board of Adjustment.

- The claim will be subject to Statute of Limitations set by the Alabama State Board of Adjustment.
