

2017 This is Research Faculty Symposium
Program-at-a -Glance
Friday September 22, 2017
Student Center

Time	Event	Description
8:30-10:30	Continental Breakfast Foyer area (2222/2223)	Light breakfast fare will be available for symposium attendees.
9:30-11:00	Auburn Talks (morning set) Student Center 2222/2223	Successful researchers and creative scholars across Auburn University's colleges and schools will provide 10-minute engaging presentations about their research. These presentations will appeal to a diverse audience including both internal and external stakeholders.
11:00-1:00	Posters and Research EXPO Student Center Ballroom	Posters: Researchers across Auburn University's colleges and schools, as well as from AUM, will be sharing their work with symposium attendees. This session provides opportunities for interactive dialogue among researchers, creative scholars, and others who are interested in learning more about the exciting discoveries and applications of Auburn's scholars. Research Expo: Symposium attendees will have opportunities to talk with center and institute directors, and with research support representatives to learn more about the diverse research activities and research facilitation services available within Auburn University. Buffet Lunch will be served
1:00-2:30	Auburn Talks (afternoon set) Student Center 2222/2223	See description above
2:30-4:30	Moderated Roundtables Student Center Rooms: 2216,2218, 2225, 2227,2310, 2326	During this time frame, there will be two sets of 45 minute moderated round tables focusing on topics that help connect faculty across disciplines and grow research programs at Auburn. The specific topics are still being determined and will address: (1) areas where we might want to launch a new transdisciplinary research/scholarly endeavor, and (2) specific techniques or strategies for improving our ability to conduct research and to compete for research funding. Refreshments will be served