Finding the Right Information on the AU Website

Whether you are a seasoned faculty member or only here for a short period of time, you may have experienced a moment when you wanted to find information and just did not know where to start. This Tiger Tips issue is going to (hopefully) address a few of these questions and provide you to the appropriate links to answer your questions and put the necessary information at your fingertips. If you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact Tony Ventimiglia (ventiaf@auburn.edu) and I can have them added to the list for future resources.
